

Code of Conduct - Player

Overview

- This Code of Conduct outlines the standards of behaviours and ethical conduct expected for players of Kalamunda City Football Club.
 - All players are responsible for adhering to this code of conduct and are advised to familiarise themselves with the standards.
 - In general, it is expected that players represent the club in an appropriate manner which does not bring the club or football into disrepute.
-

Standards

- Adhere to the principles of fair play and always play by the rules, respecting the traditions of the game and the spirit of competition.
- Respect the rights and dignity of every person including teammates, opponents, coaches and officials and avoid engaging in behaviour that abuses, provokes or harasses others.
- Respect the decision of coaches and officials.
- Always play to the best of your abilities within the laws of the game.
- Never engage in inappropriate conduct including the use of offensive language and gestures that are demeaning to others.
- Care for the equipment and facilities made available during training and competition.
- Respect the contest of sport without compromising the safety and wellbeing of other participants.

- Adhere to anti-doping policies and never engage in match fixing or betting.
- Never engage in inappropriate conduct including drinking or smoking whilst in the presence of junior participants.

Misconduct

- Any player who engages in misconduct may be sanctioned in accordance with the Club's Member Protection Policy and the decision of our Committee in following the policy.
- In the event the misconduct requires our state associations involvement, players can be sanctioned in accordance with the relevant policies of the association.

Conclusion

All state and federal association Code of Conduct policies are applicable to players, and go into greater depth on each area Standard of behaviour and ethical conduct. In the event, the above Standards are breached, it is recommended that the state and federal association Code of Conduct policies are referred to.

Kalamunda City Football Club Committee